

We were unhappy at the last general election to be moved into the Offaly area we felt as if the election was not important to us we had no contact with the people going for election our local press was taken up with the news and views of the Tipperary candidates and rightly so, even when the count was taking place we were more interested in our local candidates rather than those miles away in Offaly. Three of us vote from this house and of course we voted but we felt left out of the system. We hope we will be returned to our usual voting area of Tipperary.
