

To whom it may concern,

Kildare South has long been diserved by having only three T.D.'s when in reality the area should be served by four.

While Kildare South should already fulfill the criteria for 4 T.D's (currently 3) the following would go further to justify this;

Monasterevin, Co. Kildare and its Kildare hinterland should be moved back to the Kildare South Constituency. The town and surrounding area is a natural part of Co. Kildare and would be better served being part of such, as opposed to being part of an adjoining electoral area in an altogether different county.
